History

- 2014 – partnership development. One of three Australia China Centres funded by QUT.
- Four Chinese Partners, 3 Australian Universities
- Development of the four research themes – based on research into public health priorities in China by Associate Professor Janet Hou
What is ACCPH?

- International Virtual Centre
- Collaboration between 7 Foundation Partners
- Key activities:
  - Joint research
  - Joint HDR and Masters by Coursework programs
  - Staff and student exchange
  - Annual research forum
- Multiple Funding Sources
Foundation Members

- Peking University
- Queensland University of Technology
- Shandong Centre for Disease Control and Prevention
- Shandong University
- Sun Yat-sen University
- University of Queensland
- University of Sydney

Initial Directors
(2 years, rotational)

- MaryLou Fleming, QUT
- Professor Qingyue Meng, PKU
- Deputy Director Janet Hou, QUT
Four Pillars to the ACCPH

- Annual research forum
- Joint Research collaborations
- Joint HDR and Masters by Coursework programs
- Staff and student exchange
Inaugural Research Forum

- Hosted by QUT Faculty of Health in August 2014
- Presenters from all Australian and Chinese partners
- Signing of MOU between QUT Faculty of Health and School of Public Health at Shandong University
- Full program and abstracts available on ACCPH website www.accph.qut.edu.au
- 2015 forum hosted by Peking University in Beijing
Four Research Themes

Australia China Centre for Public Health

Population Health
- Migrant Health
- Health Education & Promotion
- Female Cancer & QoL
- Social Determinants of Health
- Cancer
- Infectious Disease
- Wound Healing

Health, Safety & Environment
- Occupational Health & Safety
- Skin Cancer & Vitamin D
- Environmental Health

Health System Research
- Health Policy, Services & Systems
- Aging Policy & Support Systems
- Food Policy & Health
- Health Economics
- Models of Care

Child & Adolescent Health
- Child Nutrition & Obesity
- Myopia development in Children
- Child Development
- Child Maltreatment
- Mental Health
Joint Research Collaborations

- Building capacity and capability
- Based on existing research activity or similar research being conducted at many of the partner Universities;
- Joint Publications
- HDR students
- Research Funding Opportunities
Joint HDR and Masters by Coursework

- University policy on joint PhD qualifications;
- Joint Master of Public Health degree with partner Institutions
Staff and Student Exchange

- International Summer School for Health and Medical Students, Queensland University of Technology
- Monday 20 July – Friday 7 August 2015
- Academic visitors from Sun Yat-sen University
2015

- Website www.accph.qut.edu.au
- Development of Operational Plan
- Development of Communication Plan
- Formation of Executive Committee and Management Committee
- Management Committee meeting (Skype) April 2015
- Developing program for Nov 2015 forum at Peking University, Beijing
- QUT contingent to visit all Chinese partners in May